ARTISTIC ABUNDANCE

There's plenty of inspiration to be found in Laguna Beach, and since 1987, Pacific Edge Gallery has celebrated the local painters and artists in its hometown. Featuring a range of work by revered artists such as Maria Bertran and Brenda Bredvik (shown), from contemporary Impressionism to abstraction, any serious collector or neophyte will be impressed with this gallery. Feeling groovy? The gallery also represents the artwork of John Lennon. pacificedgegallery.com

FIRST-CLASS FAMILY

The Cipriani family carries on their formidable legacy of hospitality, that began in 1931 with the opening of Harry's Bar in Venice and now includes their first hotel opening in Beverly Hills. Alongside sweeping views of Los Angeles, guests are treated to thoughtful amenities, such as 24-hour in-room dining services from the signature Mr. C restaurant and alluring poolside spa offerings. This home away from home won't be easy to leave—trust us. mrchotels.com
