

the blog

ABOUT

WEBSITE

PRESS

IMAGES

Tuesday, September 4, 2012

Beverly Hills Brownie Company

The inviting Beverly Hills Brownie Company

I am asked to try sweets of all varieties almost weekly.

Most of the time they are too rich or too sweet or simply lacking in flavor.

I was pleasantly surprised to discover a wonderful new shop at 315 North Beverly Drive in Beverly Hills that bakes fantastic brownies. My favorites are the petite brownies that are the perfect size and just melt in your mouth. This sweet shop is the brainchild of Bobbie Greenfield.

Posted by Julie Pryor at 12:08 PM

Julie Pryor of Pryor Events plans weddings and events in Southern California and other exotic locations around the world. Whether planning Marcia Cross's wedding, a dinner parry for Royalty or a wedding for the girl next door, Julie makes each client feel special and thoroughly painpored. Julie limits the number of events she works on which allows each client to receive unlimited attention and the highest level of service. Pryor Events has been featured in in5tyle, People Magazine. Real Simple, Grace Ormonde and many other national publications. Magical - Impeccable - Timeless - Elegant - Classic - Original - Faultiess - Perfect - are words that have been used to describe Julie's events.

The entrance to the appealing brownie boutique on north Beverly Drive in Beverly Hills.

After a successful career as a marketing executive, Bobbie Greenfield found herself facing the economic challenges that plagued Corporate America during the recent

Looking for a less stressful and more creative approach she turned to her favorite pastime - Baking. Bobble combined old family recipes and experimented to create her own unique goods.

In 2009 after perfecting her signature brownies, Bobble transitioned her at-home hobby of baking into a commercial venture. She first launched a website and just a few months ago opened this wonderful retail shop in Beverly Hills.

The brownies come in eighteen interesting flavors such as cream cheese chocolate chip, peanut brittle, mocha latte and of course the classic brownie baked with or without

The brownies are great favors as well as appreciated gifts. Pryor Events are big fans of Severly Hills Brownie Company.