HANDS OFF MY RING!

The custom-designed ring (which Kim flaunted during happier times) has 20.5 carats.

Nothing comes between Kim Kardashian and her diamonds. In her ongoing court battle with soon-to-be ex-husband Kris Humphries, the reality star, 32, is refusing to fork over the $2 million engagement ring he gave her. "Kris wants it, but Kim isn't budging because the prenup clearly states that it goes to Kim," says an insider. "There's no way Kris can get the ring." Plus, there's the fact that Kim paid for the rock herself. Kris, 27, "had planned to pay for the ring from the proceeds of the wedding," adds the source. "But there wasn't extra money — anything they made from the wedding was used to cover the wedding itself." So when the pair split after 72 days, the source says, "Kim ended up footing the bill for the ring herself."

Battling for the bling!

ROB & KRISTEN'S FRISKY FLIGHT

Robert Pattinson, 26, and Kristen Stewart, 22, usually steer clear of PDAs, but they packed it on during an LA-bound American Airlines flight on Nov. 26. "She couldn't keep her hands off of him," a fellow passenger tells In Touch. "She kept rubbing her foot against Rob's while they watched Celeste and Jesse Forever." But maybe the couple — who briefly split earlier this year after she cheated on him with director Rupert Sanders — should have picked another movie: Celeste and Jesse break up when one of them falls for someone else!

BARBARA'S HOT FOR HARRY!

One Direction's Harry Styles is known for his love of older women — and the feeling is mutual! When In Touch asked Barbara Walters which of the members (Niall Horan, 19, Zayn Malik, 19, Liam Payne, 19, Harry, 18, and Louis Tomlinson, 20) stood out to her when she interviewed them for her annual 10 Most Fascinating People special (airing Dec. 12 on ABC), the 83-year-old journalist didn't mince words: "Harry's the sexier one!" Barbara, who added diplomatically that they're all "adorable," is amazed by the band's popularity: "In Sweden, they had young women — bare-breasted — pushing their breasts on their car so that they could actually see the nipple marks on the window!"
